Subject: report on disturbances

Dear Colleague

I hope you are enjoying your work placement here in our care home for the elderly.

As you know, a large pub has opened next door and it has a late licence until 2.00am. Following our initial complaint to the council, they have asked us to compile a report. This would be a useful exercise for you to complete on your work placement. The residents are still complaining that they are finding it very hard to sleep, and are continually woken up by shouting, car doors slamming and the noise of the staff emptying the bottle bins late at night. There is also an issue with the mess that is left behind.

You need to be clear in your introduction what your purpose is. The council will need to know how and over what period of time we have monitored the disturbances. If the council are going to take any action they will need to know our findings (ie the details of the problem), the effect on the residents and what our recommendations would be.

I look forward to reading the report.

Kind regards

Sowmitha Rani
