Task 1

Hi Hena,

How are you? Last weekend I visited Dandale with some of my classmates. We took the train from Newtown on Saturday morning. The journey was only 10 minutes. I was surprised!

We were all hungry when we arrived and we decided to have lunch early. We chose a café by the river. It was busier than the cafés in Newtown.

After lunch we walked along the river. We saw Dandale University. It's a really fantastic building. It is much older than Newtown University! We stopped and took some photographs.

After our walk I wanted to sit in a park but my friend Zara wanted to go shopping. She always wants to go shopping! There was a tiny market. I bought some jewellery and a delicious chocolate cake.

In the afternoon, we went to the station and caught our train home. We enjoyed ourselves very much.

I'm going to visit Dandale again next month. I hope you will come with me!

Write soon,

Nazia

Did you know? Fascinating fact file

Did you know football probably began in China more than 2,000 years ago? Books of that time describe a game similar to football today. People played it with a leather ball full of hair.

English people started playing football in the 1100s. At that time there were not many rules and sometimes there were more than 100 people in a team! Some of the matches were quite dangerous.

At first, only men played football in England, but women started playing in the 1800s. Today most big clubs have a women's team and the number of teams is increasing every year all over the world.

The first World Cup was in 1930 in Uruguay. Twelve other countries played and Uruguay were the winners. In 2014 the World Cup was in Brazil and there were more than 30 other teams! Germany won.

Archie Thompson, an Australian, scored the highest number of goals in a football match – 13! His team beat American Samoa by 31 goals to 0 in 2002.
